There are formal monthly meetings in the company with the student, Internship Supervisor and the Malaca Instituto co-ordinator to monitor the student’s progress and more informal student-co-ordinator contacts every 2 weeks.
- Internship reporting: the student will receive a certificate and report from the internship hosting company as well as certificates for all courses completed at Malaca Instituto.

Due to our mini-campus setting with outstanding living and study facilities, many of the students spend most of the day around the school generating an extremely friendly environment with exceptional professional and social networking opportunities.
- Malaga city: with over 650,000 inhabitants, Malaga is Spain’s 6th largest city. It has a major container and cruise-ship port, mainland Spain’s 2nd largest airport, and all the business and leisure infrastructure which goes with this as well as the nearby tourist industry of the Costa del Sol. There are plenty of opportunities for Internships here!
- Mediterranean life-style: with extensive beaches, an enviable climate and an attractive historic city centre, Malaga is an ideal place in which to study. The many bars and restaurants create a vibrant atmosphere and here you will find the authentic Spain, not a tourist resort.
